

Curriculum B.A. International Economics and Sustainability

Understanding Economics – Exploring the World – Shaping our Future

7 semesters | 210 ECTS-Credits | Starting every winter semester

1. Study Section: Basics
1	Microeconomics	Economic History and History of Economic Thought	Mathematics	Principles of Business Management*	Principles of Business Ethics	International Business Law
2	Macroeconomics	Public Finance and Communication	Statistics*	Financial Management*	European Integration and Academic Writing	English B2/C1
2. Study Section: Deepening knowledge and elective courses
3	Macroeconomics 2: Growth and Money	International Economics*	Information Management and Applied Statistics	Elective I*	Societal Perspective on Sustainable Development	Game Theory and Behavioural Economics
4	Applied Economic and Social Policy	Elective II*	Econometrics	Management Tools	Growth and Development*	Environmental Economics
5	Seminar of Economic Policies		Empirical Project		Corporate Social Responsibility	Elective III*
6	Study Semester Abroad (25 ECTS)					2 Block Seminars* (5 ECTS)
7	Internship (18 ECTS)				Bachelor Dissertation (12 ECTS)

*) Module optionally in German or English, subject to course offerings

) Module in English

	Modules in the field of economics: Economics
	Modules in the field of quantitative methods
	Modules in the field of economics: Business administration
	Modules in the field of sustainability
	International modules
	Cross-sectional and elective modules

Information and counselling

Eva Brüggemann
Study Program Coordinator B.A. International Economics and Sustainability
University of Applied Sciences Osnabrueck
Caprivistr. 30a
D-49076 Osnabrück
Phone +49 541 969 2218
Mail e.brueggemann@hs-osnabrueck.de
<https://www.hs-osnabrueck.de/en/study/study-offerings/bachelor/international-economics-and-sustainability-ba/>

